

region eur+pe

THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE EUROPEAN REGION AND ITS ROLE IN THE WORLD

CAMPUS LUIGI EINAUDI - TORINO

9 October – 17 November 2023

regioneurope.eu

UNIVERSITÀ
DI TORINO

twai | TORINO
WORLD AFFAIRS
INSTITUTE

Region Europe is the international program of the University of Turin on Europe and its role in the world, pursuing a comprehensive knowledge of the European model of regional integration and the features of the EU as a global actor.

THE PROGRAM IS OPEN TO

- Students enrolled in master courses of the Department of Cultures, Politics and Society, University of Turin;*
- Erasmus and international students at the University of Turin;*
- Students enrolled in Universities belonging to the wider Region Europe network.

* Students can acquire 3, 6 or 9 credits (CFU).  Students can receive a participation certificate. Conditions are detailed here.

PROGRAM PROFILE

Up to 90 hours lesson, 3 modules:

- Political, economic, social and cultural features of Europe;
- The European way to regionalism: Historical, political, economic features of European integration;
- Europe in the world: EU foreign policy and interregional relations.

Lectures are delivered by professors of the best Italian and European Universities, journalists, EU officials, MEPs.

Extra-academic activities: Visit to the European Institutions and NATO in Brussels (if general conditions will allow).

EUrope from Outside Seminars, on the external perceptions of the EU as a global actor, involving professors from Europe, Africa, Asia and the Americas.

EU Voices Seminars, on the EU seen from its member states, institutions, stakeholders.

ONLINE APPLICATIONS ARE ACCEPTED THROUGH TO 4 OCTOBER 2023

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH:

