

RESISTING BODIES

18 December 2023

Room 3D440

Campus Luigi Einaudi

Women facing
Colonialisms,
Revolts and Revolutions

9:30-10:00 - Welcoming

10:00-12:30 - Session 1

Discussant: Luisa Passerini (EUI)

- Silvia Bruzzi (University of Turin)
"An International friendship for Care": A legacy of the Ethiopian women's resistance to the Italian aggression
- Lucia Sorbera (University of Sydney)
The long twentieth century of Egyptian women's activism. Scattered and embodied archives
- Leyla Dakhli (Marc Bloch Center in Berlin/CNRS)
Love, emancipation and politics. Women's activism in Tunisia 1960s to 1980s

Lunch break

14:30-17:00 - Session 2

Discussants: Julie Abbou & Rosita di Peri (University of Turin)

- Elisabetta Benigni (University of Turin)
Prison Literature as an Archive for Egyptian Women's Activists in the 1960s and 1970
- Giulia Daniele (Iscte - Instituto Universitário de Lisboa)
Reframing the last two decades of women's activism in Palestine and Israel
- Sara Borrillo (University of Roma Tor Vergata)
Mapping Emerging Gender Artivism in the Arab Mediterranean Public Space (MEGAMAPS).

17:30-18:30 - Keynote Speech

- Ruba Salih (University of Bologna)
Counting bodies that don't count. Reflections on Palestinian presence and the logic of elimination

The workshop is part of the dissemination activities of the results of the international project Controversial Bodies. Critical, feminist and postcolonial approaches (coordinated by Julie Abbou and Silvia Bruzzi)