

LINGUA CINESE PER L'ECONOMIA E LE RELAZIONI INTERNAZIONALI

Docente/i: ZHAO MEI RONG
Settore: L-OR/21
CFU: 9
Sede: TORINO

PROGRAMMA D'ESAME A.A.: 2011-2012

Obiettivi

(Aims of the course) With economic globalization proceeding at a fast pace, political, economic and cultural exchanges and cooperation are burgeoning between China and the European Union. Educating European students to become professionals well-versed in Chinese culture and language is indispensable for the profitable development of mutual relations. The course aims at teaching basic Chinese language and culture, at the same time offering the opportunity to grasp some key elements of Chinese history, society and traditional philosophic ideas. Students will also be exposed to typical language functions and expressions, as well as to technical terms belonging to the business and politics realms.

Risultati dell'apprendimento

Programma

(Course outline) - Introduction to Chinese language and characters (tones, characters and basic grammar) - Pronunciation issues (initials, finals, tones) - Character writing (strokes and relevant rules) - Introduction to basic words and grammar for daily life - Exploration of Chinese cultural aspects such as traditional festivals, food, music, paintings and movies.

Testi Consigliati

Modalità Didattiche

Modalità di Esame

(Method of evaluation) The exam will be made of four parts: - Listening and syllables writing; - Reading of a short passage (approx. 80 words) - A brief oral description of one's personal daily life - A grammar/writing session requiring to create a phrase using the given words (words and characters)

Note